

Veltus Park: Located at the corner of Midland Avenue and 8th Street along the Roaring Fork River, this 8-acre park, also called Kiwanis Park, has three picnic shelters, two with electric outlets. The park has two sets of restrooms, picnic tables, volleyball court, barbecue pits and a playground. Park amenities include tennis and basketball courts, horseshoe pits and a wheelchair-accessible fishing ramp.

Directions:

From Downtown Glenwood:

From Grand Avenue turn west on 8th Street. Take the next right onto Colorado Avenue then the next left onto 7th Street. Stay on 7th (7th turns into 8th) till you come to the "T" in the road, which is Midland Avenue turn left. The park is approximately .5 miles on your left.
